Netball - The sessions will be taken by Emma Hardy-Smith and Charlotte Bradley. The children will need suitable clothing eg: normal PE kit (no school shoes).

Archery - The sessions will be taken by a coach from Sports Active which is a community trust based coaching project working with Weston-super-Mare Seagulls Football Club. All equipment is provided.

Gymnastics – The sessions will be taken by Carolyn Devereux who is a certified Gymnastic Coach at Gemini Gym Club. The children will be working towards a certificate and badge and if achieved there will be an optional charge, towards the end of term, for the certificate and badge. The children will need suitable clothing so they could wear their normal PE kit or are welcome to wear leotards if they have them.

Tennis – The sessions will be taken by Dean Cope, a certified tennis coach LTA Level 2. The children will need to wear their normal PE kit. All equipment will be supplied by Dean, but if the children would like to bring their own racquet they are welcome to do so.

Mini Football – The sessions will be taken by Sports Active which is a community trust based coaching project working with Weston-super-Mare Seagulls Football Club which is a community trust based coaching project working with Weston super Mare Football Club. The children will need suitable clothing of either a football kit or they could wear their normal PE kit, but please supply separate footwear for football club other than their PE plimsolls.

Cheerleading – The sessions will be taken by Lois Miller who is the Head Coach of Weston Super Nova's Cheerleading Group. Cheerleading sessions will consist of sports acro skills, where students learn to lift each other in a series of different stunts. We also work on gymnastic tumbling skills, jump technique and occasionally pom dance. If you would like any more details please contact Lois on loismiller5@googlemail.com. The children will need suitable clothing so they could wear their normal PE kit.

Volleyball & Rounders These sessions will be paid using the school's sports premium funding. The sessions will be taken by Sports Active which is a community trust based coaching project working with Weston-super-Mare Seagulls Football Club which is a community trust based coaching project working with Weston super Mare Football Club. The children will need suitable clothing so they could wear their normal PE kit (no school shoes).

PAYMENT

Payments for all clubs will now be payable via ParentPay. Please login to your account to make payment and give permission for your child to attend. If you require advice, please ask in the office.

If a club is over-subscribed a refund will be made via ParentPay and you will be notified.

Your payment on ParentPay confirms your permission for your child to attend the clubs. Details regarding emergency contacts and the person picking- up your child will be collected directly by the club coach on the first session date. Please give permission and make payment no later than Friday 12th April 2019. Once the payment item has closed on ParentPay you will not be able to enrol your child in the club and would need to wait for next time in order to sign – up. There is a small administration charge for Netball and Volleyball & Rounders of £1.00 per 2 terms.

For the After School Clubs, children will need to be collected from the school reception at 4pm promptly. No child will be allowed to leave unless an adult is in reception to collect them.

Yours sincerely

Mrs Hodges
